

Sadie Campbell

Sadie joined WIN in 2017. She and her husband chose Wilmington after they retired, and she took up studying English literature and liberal arts at UNCW when they moved here. She is a busy volunteer in the community, acting as a docent for the Wilmington Historic Foundation and UNCW's graduation ceremonies, as well as participating in the Rape, Aggression, and Assault program at the NHC Sheriff's office, the Live Strong Program at the YMCA for fellow adult cancer survivors, and volunteering at the Salvation Army Homeless Shelter.

Sadie joined the WIN Board in mid-2023, and before that she hosted many social events to introduce WIN members to each other. She served on the Small Grants and Grants Committees, and joined the Student Collective Giving Circle initiative with GLOW.

She is an active crafter and passionate about the performing arts and music.
